HOSPITALITY /WAYS & MEANS

Message From the President

Dear Orange Art members and friends,

When I was a kid, weather like we've had was called Indian summer. By the calendar, October should be fall-like, with change towards winter. Here's hoping for great weather on October 8th, the date for the Third Annual Garden Show at Barbee Andrina's. I hope you'll be able to attend, have a good time, and support O.A.A. For complete details, please see the flyer at the end of the newsletter.

Looking forward, we have our regular monthly meetings in October and November, and our holiday pot luck dinner in December.

December is also when we'll announce the artist of the year and vote for our popular choice. (This is when members bring one work that won a First Place ribbon at one of the year's monthly competitions and all members at the meeting vote for their favorite.)

And I almost forgot to mention our collection of sample-size toiletries to support Mary's Kitchen.

Thanks, Barbara Hershey, O.A.A. President

October Meeting News

Orange Art Association is proud to welcome Robin Walker, from the San Fernando Valley, to demonstrate for us at our next meeting on Monday night, October 9. He will be focusing on acrylic non-objective and/or abstract collage. Come get inspired by some new techniques and materials that will give new life to -- and expand -- your artistic horizons. Check out his work at www.Robinwalkerstudio.com/abstracts.
