Message From the President

Hi Members and Friends of Art,

The school year seems to get shorter every year, probably because I no longer attend school or teach. They start school earlier in August, also.

But like most of you, I am looking forward to a persistent warm climate that allows artists to get out and take those photos, sketch and paint those vacation locations, and express those artistic desires. We will meet only in May and June, then be off until September.

The Orange County fair dates this year are July 13 to August 12. The fair will be closed Monday and Tuesday. Hours are Wednesday through Friday from noon to midnight, and Saturday and Sunday 11:00 a.m. to midnight.

The deadline for the fine art juried competition is Friday, June 1 (at-the-fair help with your entry will be Wednesday and Thursday, May 30 and 31 from 11:00 a.m. to 6 p.m.). The theme this year is Free Your Inner Farmer.

Barbara Hershey O.A.A. President

May Meeting News

Orange Art Association is honored to have as our demonstrator well-known oil impressionist/expressionist John Eagle from Laguna Beach's Studio 7 Gallery for the May 14 meeting. He will show us how to paint with flair and produce a quality loose-style oil painting in a short amount of time. For samples of his work, see the gallery's Web site: www.studio7gallery.com/artists/john-eagle. Meeting time is 7:30.

News, Events, Announcements & Workshops

Hi Fellow Lovers of the Arts –

I, Pat Snider, publicity chair and raffle lady, will not be at the May meeting. After months of hobbling around and progressing from cane to walker, etc., I am going to have disc surgery on Monday, May 7th. I will probably be in the hospital for five days, followed by an unknown amount of time in a local rehab center.

It would be great if one of you helpful members volunteered to sell tickets that night. It is not difficult, except that people often don't have small bills. I normally bring some change of my own. The tickets are $1 each or six for $5. Just tear them in half and give the purchaser the one that says "Keep" and put the other in the little orange tortilla container. There is also a blue apron with pockets if you would like to wear that when circulating the room. I usually scrunch the sold tickets so they don't stick together when the demonstrator picks the winner. Dispose of the leftover tickets, remove your change and give the rest of the money to Tony Podue, our treasurer. See? It's not that hard.

Have fun and I hope to see your smiling faces soon.

Thanks to Marge Trout (lifetime OAA member), we will be selling many frames, etc., before the May 14th meeting. So please bring your checkbooks, or cash is always good! You might find the frame you have been looking for, for a great price. And proceeds will go to our club!
