HOSPITALITY /WAYS & MEANS

Message From the President

Hi Members and Friends of Art,

California winter rains arrived late, and Easter was early!

The OAA artwork on display at the Orange Civic Center was switched from works by Allan Halcrow, Fletcher Dice, Victoria Olear, Susan Rapskey, Gina Barron, Donna Banning and Barbee Andrina. We are currently showing a nice collection of works from Bobbi Ochoa, Wayne Brazil, Pat Snider, Tina Koontz, and Fletcher Dice. Thank you all for volunteering to share your art.

Barbee Andrina has been ill and in and out of the hospital, but is at home now and doing much better. She wanted me to let you know that next time we will be seeing her in her new wig. I'll quote her now: "What does not kill you, makes you stronger."

I have contacted Mike Short and let him know that I plan to attend the April 12th kick-off regarding the future Greater Orange Community Arts Theater. They plan to break ground in 2021, so I am looking for a possible future Orange Open exhibit location in the city of Orange -- and maybe a monthly meeting location, too.

Barbara Hershey O.A.A. President

April Meeting News

For our April 9 demonstration for Orange Art Association, we have as our honored guest multimedia painter and colorist Joe Oakes. Joe is from down south in the Fallbrook area. He will be presenting how he paints bold, color landscapes in acrylic. For a more thorough sampling of the media he works in, see his Web site at www.joeaoakes.com. The meeting starts at 7:30.
